ARTICLE X – NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1. Officers, regional and at large directors, OEA-RA delegates/OEA-Retired Board members and NEA-RA delegates:

Oregon Education Association-Retired BYLAWS

- a. Shall be nominated by 11:59 p.m. on March 31 of the election year. They shall be elected by secret ballot sent to all OEA-Retired members and shall take office on July 1. Except on September 1, the treasurer (Article VI, Section 5.f.) and NEA-RA delegates (NEA Bylaws) will take office.
- b. Nominees for OEA-Retired elected positions must be OEA-Retired members by March 1 of the election year.
- c. To be a valid OEA-Retired delegate/OEA-Retired Board member, a candidate must be elected to the position with a minimum of three votes.
- d. In years when the number of OEA RA delegates to be elected exceeds one-third of the total number of delegates allocated to the OEA-Retired, the Board will designate certain terms to be less than three years in order to equalize the number of delegates for each three-year term.

Section 2. Terms of office for officers

- a. The president, vice president, secretary and treasurer shall be elected for two-year terms.
- b. The four officers may not serve more than two consecutive terms in the same office.
- c. The president and vice president shall be elected in even-numbered years, the secretary and treasurer in odd-numbered years.
- d. A person serving a partial term as one of the four officers shall subsequently be eligible to serve the full two terms of that office.

Section 3. Regional and at large directors:

- a. Regional directors of OEA-Retired shall be elected for three-year terms on a rotation basis as follows:

Region I: 2021, 2024, 2027
Region II: 2022, 2025, 2028
Region III: 2023, 2026, 2029

- b. Regional directors shall be residents of the OEA region from which they are elected.
- c. Two at large directors shall be elected for three-year terms.
- d. A person serving a partial term as a director shall subsequently be eligible to serve the full two terms of that office.

Section 4. Term of office for OEA RA Delegate/OEA-Retired Board

- a. OEA RA delegates/OEA-Retired Board members shall be elected for three-year terms.

Oregon Education Association-Retired BYLAWS

b. The number of delegates elected each year will be determined by the number of open positions.

c. All candidates will be placed in rank order by number of votes received. Those receiving the largest number of votes will fill the open positions. The remaining candidates will be alternate delegates for one year.

d. Should the allocation of delegates for the upcoming OEA RA be fewer than the number of elected delegates, the delegates receiving the fewest number of votes in the previous year's election will be declared alternate delegates and ranked according to their number of votes.

Section 5. Term of office for NEA RA Delegates

a. Retiree delegates to the NEA-R Annual Meeting and NEA RA shall be elected as determined by NEA.

b. NEA-RA delegates shall be elected for three-year terms, with each term beginning September 1 and ending August 31. Terms shall not all be concurrent. Terms may be less than three years for purposes of implementing a rotation schedule. A delegate cannot serve more than two full consecutive terms.

c. The number of delegates elected each year is determined by the number of open positions.

d. All candidates will be placed in rank order by number of votes received. Those receiving the largest number of votes will fill the open position(s) as determined by the NEA membership count. The remaining candidates will be designated as successor delegates in rank order. The successor term is until the next election of an NEA RA delegate.

e. Successor delegates will be designated according to the adopted OEA-Retired policy.

f. Vacancies will be determined, according to NEA Standing Rules.

Section 6. The positions of OEA Director District 27, the OEA-PAC Director District 27, OEA LAC representative District 27 and the two OEA CAT representatives shall be filled according to the OEA Bylaws and Policies.

Section 7. Any retired member shall be eligible to nominate and vote on candidates in all elective positions regardless of voter's current residency.

Section 8. Where applicable, all nominations and elections shall be in accordance with NEA elections guidelines.

ARTICLE XI – VACANCIES

Section 1. A vacancy in the position of president shall be filled by the vice president for the remainder of the term.

Section 2. A vacancy in the position of vice president, secretary, treasurer, regional director or at-large director shall be filled by appointment by the president with the approval of the Board. A person appointed to fill the vacancy of vice president, secretary, treasurer, regional director or at large director shall serve through June 30 following the next annual election.

Section 3. Vacancies in the position of OEA Director District 27, the OEA-PAC Director District 27, the OEA LAC representative District 27 and the two OEA CAT representatives shall be filled according to the OEA Bylaws and Policies.

Section 4. Vacancies in the position of OEA RA delegate/OEA-Retired Board shall be filled by the alternates, in rank order, appointed by the President, and shall serve until June 30. If there are no alternates, the President, with approval of the Board, may appoint a member who has attended two previous Board meetings only to a Board position (but not as an OEA RA delegate since delegates must be elected) with term ending June 30.

Section 5. Vacancies of NEA RA delegates will be determined and shall be filled according to NEA standing rules.

ARTICLE XII – CHAPTERS

Chapters may be established at the local or area level according to policies of OEA-Retired.

ARTICLE XIII – PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

Robert’s Rules of Order, latest revised edition, shall govern the organization in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these bylaws.

ARTICLE XIV – AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Amendments to these bylaws shall be made at the Annual Assembly.

Section 2. Proposed amendments shall be submitted in writing to the president at least sixty (60) days prior to the Annual Assembly, and sent to the members at least thirty (30) days prior to the Annual Assembly.

Section 3. Amendments require a two-thirds affirmative vote of those present and voting.

Section 4. Amendments become effective immediately upon passage, unless stated otherwise in the amendment.

Adopted: November 1985.

Amended: March of 1996, 1997, 1999, 2001, 2003, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2011, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023.
